

Fuel for the Flame

¹⁶All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, ¹⁷so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.
(II Timothy 3:16,17)

Andrew Murray

“Prayer is like fire. The fire can only burn brightly if it is supplied with good fuel. That fuel is God’s Word, which must not only be studied carefully and prayerfully, but must be taken into the heart and lived out in the life.”

¹⁶All Scripture is God-breathed

- The Bible is 66 books written by 40 authors over 1600 years in 3 languages

*²⁰Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet’s own interpretation of things. ²¹For prophecy never had its origin in the human will, but prophets, though human, spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.
(II Peter 1:20,21)*

¹⁶... and is useful for

1. Teaching -- what we need to believe
2. Rebuking -- what we need to stop doing
3. Correcting -- what we need to start doing
4. Training -- what we need to become equipped for every good work.

*17Take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.
(Ephesians 6:17)*

*13And we also thank God continually because, when you received the word of God, which you heard from us, you accepted it not as a human word, but as it actually is, the word of God, which is indeed at work in you who believe.
(1 Thessalonians 2:13)*

*12For the word of God is alive and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow;
it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart.
(Hebrews 4:12)*
